

AN ACT

relating to the regulation of the practice of veterinary medicine.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 801.004, Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 801.004. APPLICATION OF CHAPTER. This chapter does not apply to:

(1) the treatment or care of an animal in any manner by the owner of the animal, an employee of the owner, or a designated caretaker of the animal, unless the ownership, employment, or designation is established with the intent to violate this chapter;

(2) a person who performs an act prescribed by the board as an accepted livestock management practice, including:

(A) castrating a male animal raised for human consumption;

(B) docking or earmarking an animal raised for human consumption;

(C) dehorning cattle;

(D) aiding in the nonsurgical birth process of a large animal, as defined by board rule;

(E) treating an animal for disease prevention with a nonprescription medicine or vaccine;

(F) branding or identifying an animal in any manner;

(G) artificially inseminating an animal, including training, inseminating, and compensating for services related to artificial insemination; and

(H) shoeing a horse;

(3) the performance of a cosmetic or production technique to reduce injury in poultry intended for human consumption;

(4) the performance of a duty by a veterinarian's employee if:

(A) the duty involves food production animals;

(B) the duty does not involve diagnosis, prescription, or surgery;

(C) the employee is under the direction and general supervision of the veterinarian; and

(D) the veterinarian is responsible for the employee's performance;

(5) the performance of an act by a person who is a full-time student of an accredited college of veterinary medicine ~~[or is a foreign graduate of a board-approved equivalent competency program for foreign veterinary graduates and who is participating in a board-approved extern or preceptor program]~~ if the act is performed under the direct supervision of a veterinarian ~~[employing the person];~~

(6) an animal shelter employee who performs euthanasia in the course and scope of the person's employment if the person has successfully completed training in accordance with Chapter 829, Health and Safety Code;

(7) a person who is engaged in a recognized state-federal cooperative disease eradication or control program or an external parasite control program while the person is performing official duties required by the program;

(8) a person who, without expectation of compensation, provides emergency care in an emergency or disaster; or

(9) a consultation given to a veterinarian in this state by a person who:

(A) resides in another state; and

(B) is lawfully qualified to practice veterinary medicine under the laws of that state.

SECTION 2. Section 801.157, Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 801.157. PEER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM. (a) The board shall establish or approve a peer assistance program for veterinarians. The peer assistance program must comply with Chapter 467, Health and Safety Code.

(b) The board may order a veterinarian who is subject to disciplinary action under this chapter based on a finding that the veterinarian is impaired by chemical dependency or mental illness to submit to care, counseling, or treatment through the peer assistance program.

SECTION 3. Subsection (a), Section 801.253, Occupations Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The board shall ~~hold a regular meeting at least twice each year to~~ conduct licensing examinations at least twice each year as provided by board rule. The ~~board shall conduct the~~

1 examination shall be conducted at a time and place the board
2 determines is convenient for applicants.

3 SECTION 4. Subsection (a), Section 801.254, Occupations
4 Code, is amended to read as follows:

5 (a) The board shall conduct, or may contract with a
6 board-approved entity to conduct, the licensing examination on
7 subjects relating to veterinary medicine, including anatomy,
8 pathology, chemistry, obstetrics, public health, veterinary
9 practice, veterinary jurisprudence, physiology and bacteriology,
10 and other subjects regularly taught in reputable schools of 11 veterinary medicine. In this chapter, a reference to an
12 examination conducted by the board includes an examination
13 conducted by a board-approved entity as permitted by this 14 subsection.

15 SECTION 5. Section 801.258, Occupations Code, is amended to 16 read as follows:

17 Sec. 801.258. TEMPORARY LICENSE. The board by rule may 18 provide for the issuance of a temporary license to an applicant who:

19 (1) is licensed in good standing as a veterinarian in 20 another state or foreign country;

21 (2) meets the eligibility requirements under Sections
22 801.252(1) and (2); and

23 (3) is not subject to denial of a license or to 24 disciplinary action for a ground listed in Section 801.402.

25 SECTION 6. Section 801.353, Occupations Code, is amended by
26 adding Subsection (d-1) to read as follows:

27 (d-1) The privilege provided by this section is waived by

S.B. No. 811

1 the client or the owner of the animal treated by the veterinarian in
2 a proceeding to substantiate and collect on a claim for the
3 provision of veterinary services.
